Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

CORRESPONDENCE WITH GRACE

(Source: 'Divine Intimacy': Fr Gabriel of St Mary Magdalene, O.C.D.)

O Lord, grant that Your grace in me may not be void.

The Gospel continues the same subject of the Epistle and shows us Jesus weeping over Jerusalem. The Creator, the Lord, the Redeemer weeps over the ruin of His creatures, the people whom He has loved with predilection, even choosing them as the companions of His earthly life, and whom He had desired to save at any price.

"Jerusalem, Jerusalem... how often would I have gathered together thy children as the hen doth gather her chickens under her wings, and thou wouldst not!" (Mt 23,37). This was the constant attitude of Jesus toward the holy city, but it always remained blind to every light, deaf to every invitation, and the Saviour, shortly before going to His Passion, broke forth into His last sorrowful admonition: "If thou also hadst known and that in this thy day, the things that are to thy peace!" But again, the city resists, and Jesus, after having loved it so much, and after having wept over it as a mother weeps over her son who has gone astray, predicts its ruin: "Thy enemies... shall not leave in thee a stone upon a stone, because thou hast not known the time of thy visitation."

Do you know how to recognize the moments in which Our Lord visits your soul? A word read or heard, perhaps even by chance, an edifying example, an interior inspiration, a new light which makes you see your faults more clearly and opens new horizons of virtue and of good—all are visits from Jesus. And you, how do you correspond? Is your soul sensitive to these lights, to these admonitions? Do you not sometimes turn your gaze away, fearing that the light you have glimpsed may ask you for sacrifices which are too painful for your self-love?

Oh! if you had always recognized the moment in which the Lord visited you! If you had always been open to His action! Try then to begin again today, resolve to commence anew each time that you happen to give in to nature. "The things that are to your peace," your good, your sanctification, are precisely here, in this continual adherence to the impulses of grace.

Hymns for Sunday Low Mass

ProceSSIONAL

Faith of our Fathers! Living still
In spite of dungeon, fire and sword:
Oh, how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word.

Refrain: Faith of our Fathers! Holy Faith!
We will be true to thee till death
We will be true to thee till death.

Our Fathers, chained in prisons dark,
Were still in heart and conscience free:
How sweet would be their children's fate,
If they, like them, could die for Thee!

RecessionAL

O purest of creatures! Sweet mother, sweet maid;
The one spotless womb wherein Jesus was laid.
Dark night hath come down on us, Mother, and we Look out for thy shining, sweet Star of the Sea.

Deep night hath come down on this rough-spoken world,
And the banners of darkness are boldly unfurled;
And the tempest-tossed Church, all her eyes are on thee;
They look to thy shining, sweet Star of the Sea.

He gazed on thy soul; it was spotless and fair;
For the empire of sin - it had never been there;
None ever had owned thee, dear Mother, but He,
And He blest thy clear shining, sweet Star of the Sea..
